Venue

Zhenjiang is situated in the southeast of China, at the junction of the Yangtze River and the Grand Canal, 63 kilometers (40 miles) from Nanjing, the capital city of Jiangsu Province. It has a history of 3000 years. Earlier Chinese travelers classified Zhenjiang's scenery as 'The Best Landscape under Heaven', and indeed the area known as the Southern Suburbs was often used as a theme in landscapes by famous Chinese painters. A local specialty is a steamed meat pastry called Crab Cream Bun. Other famous special products include fragrant black vinegar (镇江香醋), Chinkiang pork (镇江肴肉), and pickles.
